

Your customers will enjoy seeing their beautiful flowers through our clear plastic sleeve, even while they're kept together and protected. The sealed bottom means wet flowers won't leave a drippy mess.

You will be delighted with the outstanding value of our bouquet sleeves. There's nothing comparable! Plus, they'll take up almost no space - they hang in a convenient location, but stay out of the way. The header keeps them neatly in place until you need them.
